

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

LAMAR M. HAUPT, and CAROL M. HAUPT	: : : : : : : :	CIVIL ACTION
v.
THE GOODYEAR TIRE & RUBBER COMPANY		NO. 02-2717

ORDER

AND NOW, this 9th day of June, 2003, in order to resolve and rule on certain motions in limine filed in anticipation of trial before the undersigned as consented to by the parties, it is hereby ORDERED :

1. Upon consideration of Plaintiffs' Motion In Limine (Document #19), together with the Response of Defendant in Opposition (Document #22), and after oral argument heard, Plaintiffs' Motion In Limine is GRANTED in its entirety;

2. Upon consideration of Defendant's Motion In Limine (Document # 20), together with Answer of Plaintiff in Opposition (Document #24), and after oral argument and review of the pertinent deposition transcript by the court, Defendant's Motion in Limine is DENIED in its entirety, without prejudice to Defendant's right to raise similar objection at time of trial.

BY THE COURT:

Linda K. Caracappa, U.S.M.J.